QUARANTINE WORSE THAN YELLOW JACK FOR NEW ORLEANS

Mayor Behrmann Says
Disease Is Under Fullest Control.

FIGHT ON MOSQUITOES

Number of New Cases Yesterday Reduced by Five.

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—Mayor Behrmann this morning gave out the following signed statement:

"New Orleans is suffering more from the rigid quarantine than from yellow fever, of which the citizens here have the fullest control.

"The mosquito theory is accepted by our physicians and laymen alike. There is nothing remaining to be done but fight the mosquitoes, which is being done by oiling the gutters and screening and oiling the cisterns.

"The number of new cases were less yesterday by five than on the previous day.

"We have the situation so thoroughly in hand that we believe we will shortly convince the outside world that by working on the mosquito theory yellow fever will be entirely robbed of all its perils, and that shot-gun quarantines are senseless as a method to combat yellow fever, as such cannot prevent the spread of mosquitoes.

"This is a fight wholly against the stegomyia fasciata mosquito.

Animals in Living Rooms.

The discovery of a cow in the third story of a house in the infected district, which had been raised from a little calf, and of a woman milking a goat at the foot of a bed on which her husband was dying of yellow fever, are good examples of way the yellow fever has spread with such remarkable rapidity in this city.

Italians who have been living in the disinfected districts near the French Market are fleeing to all parts of the city. It is generally known that these people are scattered in all directions. They don't think about their household effects.

Just a few clothes and a little bedding for them to rest on is all they take with them, but the continuous moving of the half-crazed people, it is believed, may spread the fever. The authorities are trying to prevent this, and are asking the assistance of all citizens.

Deserted Italian Quarters.

Yesterday fifteen men, women and children, with a few belongings, were found on Dauphin street. They had left the Italian quarters, each carrying a bundle of clothing. The matter was reported at once to the city board of health. These people had no bedding, and were prepared to sleep on the floor.

Meanwhile the house to house inspection is being carried on. Men, with determined faces, are going about telling the people what to do, and their commands are being promptly obeyed. Some wards have about completed their work and have sent out committees to aid others who are yet not so far along with the situation. Charles Janvier, chairman of the citizens' committee, has ordered 30,000 buttons to be distributed among the people of New Orleans. The inscription engraved on them is: "My cisterns are all right; how are yours?"

All over the city tonight there is the combined odor of crude petroleum, sulphur and lime. The campaign which has been carried on in this country, never before has the 300,000 people, one and all, turned out to clean up the city. Today cotton men and the poorest laborer can be seen cleaning out their gutters and pouring oil on all stagnant water about each house.

Ambulances Kept Busy.

Both the detention camps and the isolation hospital were put into active service, and the ambulance was kept busy carrying new cases to the hospital.

There are already thirteen people in the yellow fever hospital. The Avondale (Continued on Third Page.)

THE WEATHER REPORT.

A depression of little energy is central over western Lake Erie, having advanced to that position from southeastern Minnesota in the last twenty-four hours. The depression that has occupied the Plateau region for the last three weeks shows signs of filling up. Rain has fallen rather generally over the east Gulf and south Atlantic States, also in the lake region, the upper Ohio valley and the middle Atlantic States. Showers have also fallen in western Kansas, western Nebraska, western South Dakota, Montana, Colorado and Wyoming.

The temperature changes have been unimportant. Showery weather is probable for tonight and Sunday in all parts of the Washington forecast district, except the upper Ohio valley, where the weather Sunday will be fair.

No important changes in temperature are anticipated.

POLITICAL CHAOS EXISTS IN OREGON; MACHINE KILLED

Senator Mitchell's Disgrace Disrupts His Organization.

REBELLION WILL ENSUE

Democrats Hope to Win
Series of Fights on Schedule.

With its senior United States Senator under conviction, both its members of the House under indictment, and most of its prominent local officials recently removed for offenses against the nation's laws, the State of Oregon is facing a political revolution. Something closely akin to chaos just now prevails.

"There are a series of fights ahead which are certain to become historic in the Northwest. Not only will there be a struggle of factions for control of the Republican party, but the Democrats are preparing for a determined effort to seat themselves in the saddle of State administration.

On their side, the Democrats have Governor George E. Chamberlain, whose victory at the last election was one of the political wonders of the country. They also have the argument of the political corruption of their opponents, which they will bring with every possible chance. The Republicans on the other hand have, despite factional division, an immense natural preponderance of votes.

Would Not Resign.

Senator John H. Mitchell is under conviction for his part in the land frauds. Despite all efforts to induce him to resign he declined to do so when, at his indictment and before his conviction, the Republican Legislature was in session and could have chosen a Republican Senator. Since that time the Legislature has adjourned and a Democratic governor has been inaugurated, with the result that if Mitchell should now resign a Democrat would be appointed to serve out the remainder of his term.

If he resigns, or if the sentence of the lower court shall be sustained in the Federal Supreme Court, Mitchell will leave a vacancy which Governor Chamberlain will probably fill by appointing C. E. S. Wood to serve till March 4, 1907. A now calculated, Mitchell will not retire till the court affirms his conviction, which Oregon fully expects it to do.

When that confirmation will be announced depends on Mitchell. If, still insisting on his innocence, he appears at the October term of the Supreme Court and asks that the case be advanced, the decision will be given out in January next. If he does not ask for advancement of the case, then it will not be decided till a year later.

The Oregon Legislature will meet in January, 1907, and elect a new Senator, whose term will begin March 4, 1907.

The Probable Successor.

Mr. Wood, who is considered almost certain to be a Senator for a short term, is a Portland lawyer, a man of considerable wealth, and one of the Democratic powers in the State.

Senator Fulton, present junior Senator, colleague of Mitchell, and Oregon's only representative in the national legislature who is not under conviction or indictment, is the last Mitchell man in office. The Federal officials, land-office men, postmasters, etc., who were named through the Mitchell machine's influence, have been removed.

Fulton has succeeded in retaining the confidence of the President. Thus far he has had most of his recommendations accepted. His political future is uncertain. Before the present scandals arose, the Republican party was divided between the Mitchell and Simon factions, former Senator Joseph Simon heading the anti-Mitchell forces. Simon wants to get back into the saddle of power, but there is considerable opposition to him aside from the Mitchell people.

Whether this opposition to Simon will organize around Fulton and make him its candidate for Senator is still uncertain. It is certain that a leader is wanted. Aside from Fulton, ex-Gov. T. Geer, ex-Representative M. A. Moody, H. W. Scott, editor of the Portland Oregonian, and one or two others aspire to the leadership.

That the next Legislature will be Republican is hardly to be doubted. The Democrats will run Governor Chamberlain again, and will make a determined fight for State control. They elect Chamberlain, but it is almost impossible that they should get the Legislature.

Nine After Hermann's Shoes.

Although Representative Blinger Hermann is still to be tried, there are nine candidates already in the field for his shoes. If he shall be convicted, he will have to retire from the race, if he should be acquitted or secure a hung jury he might be renominated. His following is still in large part loyal. With so many other candidates in the field it would easily be possible for him to win.

Representative Williamson, also under indictment, has been tried twice, but the jury failed to agree, ten favoring conviction. His second trial is now in progress. Whatever the outcome, it is conceded that his political career is ended.

Former Representative M. A. Moody will probably succeed him in the House unless he should be chosen Senator. As Moody is a Republican, a change in the House there must be special elections to choose their successors, and in anticipation of these the preliminaries are already well in progress.

This, in brief outline, is the political situation in Oregon, which has resulted from the exposure of the remarkable corruption in that State. It is, in a large way, the story of the tragic fall of one man, Senator John H. Mitchell. American politics scarcely contains the record of a more wonderful retribution than has been visited on this pioneer of the Pacific coast.

Thomas Kelly Jumps From Hospital Window

Inmate of Inebriate Ward at the Emergency Leaps Out of the Fourth Story, Killing Himself—Despondent and Desperate.

Despondent because drink had gotten the better of him, and despairing of ever curing his appetite for it, Thomas Kelly, thirty-six years old, of 2284 M street northwest, hurled himself from a fourth-story window of the inebriate ward at the Emergency Hospital, about 5 o'clock this morning, and was instantly killed.

Coroner Nevitt gave a certificate of death by suicide. The body was later turned over to an undertaker to be prepared for burial.

Kelly is said to have been a slave to strong drink, and physicians at the Emergency Hospital say that he spent most of his time in the inebriate ward of that institution. On dozens of occasions Kelly was admitted to the hospital to be treated for drunkenness.
